Bones Scavenger Hunt Science Spot

Fun in a variety of locations. Our scavenger hunts work basically the same way in every location. It's the venue that changes the overall feeling of the hunt.. Indoors or outdoors? You might want to pick a location where you don't have to worry about weather, or a location that is most convenient to your office, or a location that's near a great place to have a post-hunt party.

Predator or Scavenger One of the most controversial theories about Tyrannosaurus is if it was actually a predator at all, but instead lived the life of a scavenger. Some have said that its size, even when combined with lower weight estimates meant that it could not run, as in both feet off the ground at the same time. Biomechanical studies have also shown that it ...
